

DAY 2 GAMES

DAY 2 GAMES

Game 1: Soaked

Game Connection to Bible Story: Peter gets soaked in the Bible Story. When we hang on to problems we can get soaked with worry instead of keeping our eyes on Jesus

Supplies Needed: Bins, buckets, or pots (2 per team), sponge or rag/washcloth/hand towel (1 per team), towels

Directions 2 or more people: Have everyone lie on their back side by side. Place a bin of water by the person on one end and an empty bin by the person on the other end. The object is to transfer all of the water from one bin to the other using a sponge. The person by the bin full of water must dunk the sponge, then pass it down the line to the last person, who will then squeeze the water into the empty bin before passing the sponge back and repeating. The players will get wet and they'll love it! Thicker sponges work better than small kitchen sponges/scrubbing pads. You can also substitute the sponge with a t-shirt or hand towel. (This game is demonstrated in the Day 2 video.)

Directions 2 people: Put about a cup of water into a bucket (bucket 1) or pot. Time a child as they dip the sponge in bucket 1 and run it to bucket 2 squeeze the water out and run back to bucket 1 for more water. Dip sponge again in bucket 1 and run to bucket 2 and squeeze the sponge out. Repeat until all water in bucket 1 is gone. This can be done twice to see if the child can beat their time.

Game 2: Wiggle Worms

Game Connection to Bible Story: No relation to Bible story/verse

Supplies Needed: Old blanket or bed sheet (2 or more)

Directions for 2 or more people: Wrap 2 (or more) people separately in a blanket or bed sheet. Tuck the blanket or bed sheet in tight so it doesn't come loose. Have the "wiggle worms" lay on the ground side-by-side, then establish a finish line. On "go," the wiggle worms must wiggle their way toward the finish line like an inch worm. The person who crosses the line first wins. If you have enough players, you can play multiple rounds and have the winners compete until there is only one champion.

Directions for 2 people: If the adult doesn't want to be wrapped up a child can go from the start to the finish line being timed and then do it again and see if they can do it more quickly.

Game 3: Cracker Stackers

Game Connection to Bible Story: We need to keep an eye on the crackers/cookies just as we need to keep our focus on Jesus.

* supplies * are included in the daily packet

Supplies Needed: crackers 1 sleeve for each registrant

Directions four or more players: Have one player from each team lie down on their back. Have the other players carefully stack crackers on their teammate's forehead. The player on the ground will have to stay very still and try not to laugh. The team that can stack the most crackers without falling is the winner.

Directions for 2 players: If you don't have enough players for multiple teams, simply challenge the kids to see how many crackers they can stack. Play multiple rounds and allow players to take turns lying on the ground.

Game 3 alternate or additional game: Minute to win it with chocolate sandwich cookies

Game Connection to Bible Story: We need to keep an eye on the crackers/cookies just as we need to keep our focus on Jesus.

Supplies Needed: sandwich cookies

Directions for 2 or more players: Each player puts a sandwich cookie on their forehead and tries to move the cookie from their forehead into their mouth without their hands. Do not take time to consume the cookie. As soon as cookie enters mouth, take another cookie and do the same thing. Count how many cookies are

Game 4 Alt game LOL:

Supplies: None

Game Connection to Bible Story: No relation to Bible story/verse

Directions for more than 2 players: Have everyone sit in a circle facing one another. When it's your turn, you must try to make everyone laugh without laughing yourself. You can make funny faces, sounds, or gestures. You have 15 seconds to make as many people laugh as possible, but if you laugh yourself, your time is up. Give players 1 point for every person they make laugh. Compare points at the end and declare a winner.

Directions for two people: Child tries to make adult laugh. Then adult tries to make child laugh

Bible Verse: Trust in the Lord with all your heart. Do not depend on your own understanding. Proverbs 3:5. Cut the paper along the dotted lines. Mix up the cards and put the cards back into the correct order.
