Our procedure if your child becomes sick or injured at VBS:

1. Ebenezer United Methodist Church (EUMC) will call the parent's/guardian's primary number, then secondary number, and then the emergency contact number.
2. If there is no answer at any of the provided numbers, EUMC will call an ambulance to transport child to a medical facility. A designated EUMC adult will accompany the child to the medical facility.
3. Child may be treated and/or admitted based upon medical judgment of the attending physician at medical facility.
4. EUMC will continue calling the parent/guardian and emergency contact until one is reached.

PLEASE NOTE BEFORE SIGNING:

For the safety of our children, Ebenezer United Methodist Church and Resurrection Parish have for years required thorough courthouse-acquired background checks for all adult VBS volunteers in compliance with our Safe Sanctuaries policy. However, we must inform you that we are not in full compliance with the Joseph R. "Beau" Biden III Child Protection Act, which took effect on April 7, 2016. Your signature acknowledges your awareness of this.
